

Programme

Registration from 08.00

The conference will commence at 09.30

Conference moderator
Alex Taylor, television and radio broadcaster

09.30

Welcome and opening remarks

David Collett, ESTA President
Klaus Meissner, President, Mobile Cranes Product Group, FEM

09.45

Markets and technology: trends and key issues in the wind industry

Johannes Schiel, Manager, Wind Energy, VDMA Power Systems

10.00

Improving communication and safety along the supply chain

Friedrich Brockmann, Senior Director QSE Central Europe, Vestas

10.30

Problems observed during lifts on wind farms - a review of accidents and their causes

Klaus Meissner, Director, Product Strategy, Terex Cranes and President, Mobile Cranes Product Group, FEM

11.00 Coffee

11.30

New challenges for mobile cranes due to increasing hub heights in the windmill industries

Hans-Dieter Willim, General Manager, Design Department, Liebherr-Werk Ehingen

12.15

Port handling: initiatives and lessons learned at Siemens, Hull, UK

Barry Denness, Head of Port Operations - Hull, Siemens Wind Power

12.45

Questions

13.00 Lunch

13.45

Planning, safety and productivity during onshore wind farm construction - a crane user's perspective

Sander Splinter, Managing Director, Mammoet Europe and President, ESTA Section Cranes

14.15

On-site delivery and achieving common standards - a transportation perspective

David Collett, President of ESTA, Managing Director, Collett Group

14.45

BSK's site road and crane pad requirements for safe transport and erection of wind power plants

Marcus Wübbelmann, Manager, Crane & Logistics EMEA Wind, GE Renewable Energy

15.15

Questions

15.30 Tea

15.50

Cooperation, innovation and transportation issues - a manufacturer's view

Lars Schødt, Area Manager and Member Wind Expert Group, TII Group

16.20

Thinking outside the box – new problems, new solutions

Norbert van Schaik, Technical Lifting Specialist, Appointed Person Lifting Operations, Siemens.

16.50

Round table panel discussion

What to do next – experts round table and report for follow-up

17.30 Drinks and canapés reception